Our Band

The growth of the Ripon High School Band has been neither sensational nor phenomenal. The history of that growth is the story of a slow plodding uphill climb. Milestones in the journey were innumerable rehearsals by individuals, sections, and combined sections. A band is one organization that cannot be built around one or two stars. Every person from the soloists to the fourth altos must be working hard in the highest type of team-work before the ensemble effect is worth listening to. If the band has achieved any success it is because, to a great degree, that team-work has been secured.

The start was made early in the fall of 1924 when a meeting was held to organize a band. A nondescript collection of instruments responded. The first hour was spent tuning up the strings. The next hour was spent keeping them in tune. The music was the simplest obtainable, but there were only two in the group that could make an intelligent attempt at playing it. A few, however, refused to be discouraged. The suggestion was made that another rehearsal be held without the strings. That rehearsal developed into the first band practice. When the Christmas program came around, the band, consisting of five cornets, two trombones, one baritone, one alto, one saxophone, and two drums, made its debut and played the four selections that had been drilled upon for three months. The students welcomed the initial appearance of the band with enthusiasm, but the interest waned and few recruits were added. It took over two years to convert that occasional student interest into the eager boosting attitude that has only this spring been displayed by the student body.

The band continued rehearsing through the winter months playing for occasional basketball games, and for several community affairs.

The fall of 1923 began with a nucleus of ten people who had some band experience the year before. An early drive brought in new members and by spring the membership had gone up to thirty.

The year of 1926-27 has been the best year the band has had. The membership has remained at thirty, but people in the Junior High School have begun to work into the organization, and that means much for its future growth. It is also in this school year that community and high school interest which has been dormant for some time gradually made itself known. The business men subscribed handsomely for tickets to the annual concert in February, making possible the purchase of a new bass horn. In May, students and business people donated ninety-five dollars in a band tag day.

All during this year the work of the band has been focused on the possibility of entering the band in the state tournament to be held at Milwaukee. At the time this article is written, interest is high, the band is practicing almost every day, and the trip seems assured. That the band will make a most creditable showing goes without saying.

Plans for the encouragement of band work for next year are now being formulated. One hour a day is to be set aside for band rehearsal. Students will be given instruction free of charge on any of the band instruments and will have their lessons arranged for during the school day. A beginners’ band will be organized to act as a “feeder” to the big band. It is further planned to organize an “Entertainers’ Bureau” with the band as the central source. That is an organization upon which the school and community may draw for individuals or groups to assist on programs, with music, dramatics, readings, etc.

In but a few years it is planned that Ripon shall have a band in each school building in the city, with a fine system concert band of one hundred members.

These dreams are not impossible. Next fall, greater vigor than ever will be displayed in making them come true. Half the battle is won. Ripon now has a band, and a good one. Student apathy has become student interest. Community interest will grow into community boosting.

The time will come when fifty per cent of the boys and girls in the Ripon schools will be carrying instruments to school in addition to their school books.

FLORENCE ADAMSKI
Born June 13, 1909. Died May 13, 1926

The dead friends live and always will;
Their presence hovers around us still.
It seems to me they come to share
Each joy or sorrow that we bear.
Among the living I can feel
The sweet departed spirits steal,
And whether it be woe or woe,
I walk with those I used to know.

Class History

"Hello—yes, this is R.H.S. 1-9-2-7. A Senior speaking. Did you say you wanted some information concerning the history of the Senior family here? Well, I'll do my best.

"Six years ago we came to Ripon High School as seventh graders. Though we were seen more during our first two years of study here, our class parties showed that we knew how to cooperate.

"As Freshmen we became more prominent.

"What?—Our prowess in athletics?—Well, we took second place in the interclass tournament. Oh, you say, we couldn't help being victorious, with our team? Well, of course, with such athletes as 'Cutta' Klemp, 'Kermie' Werder, 'Pat' Wagner, and the rest, it was natural that we did so well. Yes, it is a shame that 'Kermie' and 'Pat' left, isn't it?

"You should have seen our Junior High graduating class—yes, it was large—seventy members.

"Our Sophomore year?—Although nothing spectacular occurred, we were forming plans for the best Prom ever given by an R. H. S. class.

"Of course, our Junior year, which proved to be the most eventful in our successful pilgrimage through high school, was crowded with diverse events. By dances and candy sales we earned money for our Prom.

"You don't mean to say you missed our Junior class play? Why, 'The Importance of Being Earnest' was one of the biggest things attempted ever carried to successful termination by a Junior class.

"What?—A-a-ah, the Prom! Is there another word that embodies so many alluring qualities as that word, 'Prom'? And the Prom given by the class of '27 under Carl Welk's able direction, I am proud to assert, stands unexcelled as the most magnificent of any ever staged by a Junior class.

"Oh, it is only recently that we have achieved the right of being known as Seniors—only this year, in fact. Well, we have done a lot for Ripon High. Just think of the athletes we have had in our class—Carl Klemp stands out as one of the most prominent athletes in the high school's career. We have held our own in football, basketball and track. In this year's Little Ten Track Tournament, Ray Eckert, Marland Burt and Carl Klemp all got first place cups.

"Forensics? Of course, we're in that, too. Clarice represented us in declam, and Orville, Jean, Edward and Frieda were on the debate teams.

"Yes, music, too. We've contributed our share to the band and the boys' and girls' glee clubs. Eleven of the sixteen girls in the glee club contest and one member of the boys' quartette were Seniors.

"Did we have a class play? We certainly did! It was wonderful, of course. It proved a successful culmination to our high school dramatics.

"Yes, although it took us six years to attain our present position as dignified Seniors, it will take but a few minutes to make us alumni. Well, we do hate to think of leaving, but I suppose we must eventually, so why not now?"

And sadly I hung up the receiver as a good-bye issued from it.
A Worth-While Journey

May, 1940.

I was on my way back to the United States, to see an old classmate of mine, Clarice Turner. On my way, I stopped off in several European cities. During my short stay in Valladolid, I decided to visit the university. After trying vainly to make several Spanish lads and lasses understand the Spanish which I had been forgetting for over ten years, I spied a friend who would help me in my distress.

"Bee Griesel! What in the world are you doing here?" I cried joyously.

"Why, didn't you know? I'm teaching English in the university here," she replied in her best professorian manner. "But I can't understand how you happen to be here. Please tell me."

"Well, I'm just on my way back to New York to visit Clarice. She's quite a wonder on the stage there, you know."

We talked as fast as we could for a couple of hours, and then I had to hurry to catch my train for Paris, where I was to make my next stop.

At the station, before I boarded my train, I nudged Bee, and asked, "Look, Bee, isn't that man over there Art Kussman? It certainly looks like him!"

By that time, the person in question saw us, and recognized us, for it really was Art. We had a few moments' gossip during which we learned that Arthur was doing scientific research work, and was taking a little vacation before he returned to Africa, where his experimenting was being carried on. He informed us that he was ably assisted in his work by Harold Wink and Lawrence Bandt.

Then I had to leave, so we three, who hadn't met for so long, parted. It was not long before the "conductor," or conductor, came for the tickets. I glanced up as he entered the car, but paid little attention to him, until he was at my seat.

"Why, Howie!" I gasped. "Is it really you?"

"Yes, it's really I," he answered.

We talked a moment, but then he passed on down the car.

"This seems to be my lucky day," I thought. "Here I've seen three of my old classmates today. That's more than I've seen all during the five years since I left those good old United States."

On my way from the station to the hotel in gay Paree, I noticed a sign, "E Bartz, Modiste."

"It can't be!" I thought to myself.

But it was Elvord who came to the door at that instant. Later I learned that he was one of Paris' most prominent designers.

"I suppose your mannequins are all French," I ventured, when I was talking with him.

"Oh, no. I think you'll remember several of them as classmates of ours. Adelaide Koehler is one of my best ones, with Pearl Durland running a close second. And, can you guess who shows my 'stylish stouts'? I knew you couldn't—Jassy Reagan!" "What? Jassy a 'stylish stout'? I can imagine her stylish, but I can't stout."

"I just sold one of my finest creations to Madame Mead, who is here from the United States."

"Mead? It isn't Hazel Bremer, is it?"

"Yes, she and Clarence are enjoying a vacation here in Europe. Clarence is resting up after several years of strenuous work on his farm."

Later in the week, I crossed the channel to England—no, I didn't swim it! On the boat I chanced to meet another member of the class of '27 of R.H.S., Paul Prochnow, now returning to Liverpool, where he is doing remarkable work in window decorating.

While in a book shop in London, I learned about several more Ripon High School students who had been in my class. I was glancing at some recently published books when I saw one by Edward Chartier. Naturally, this was more interesting to me than some, so I looked at it more thoroughly and discovered that the illustrations were by Ray Eckert. In a case of more scientific books I saw one bearing the title, "Hoffman's Advanced Trigonometry." That looked suspicious, so I decided to investigate. From the title page I learned that the book was written by Orville Hoffman, head of the Mathematics department at the University of Southern California.

As I had some time to spare, I decided to visit Westminster Abbey, as every other tourist has done since time began. There I found a small party discussing the various points of interest. Among them were several whom I knew. Mildred Yerk told me that she was doing social service work in Charleston, South Carolina, but had been persuaded by Florence Van Kirk, who was a stenographer in that city, to take a little vacation. Florence Dolske, housekeeper for a wealthy Bostonian, was also of the party.

Then, finally, I was leaving England, and how good it seemed to be heading back to America! Unless you, too, have been several thousand miles away, for five years, you cannot realize what a thrill I had. On the ship that morning, I noticed a party of ladies, who were quite evidently American. But it was not until late afternoon that I found who they were. R.H.S. grades, everyone! There was Lorraine Hahn, who was personally conducting the tour; Gertie Dettman, humor editor of one of New York's greatest newspapers; Linda Hasse, wife of a foreign secretary in Washington, who was off for a rest from pressing social duties; Frieda Keso, who had been lecturing in England, and was returning with the party; Lilas Parmalee, who had been to Paris for her trousseau.

Oh, it was nice to see them all again! And they told me about so many of my other classmates.

"What is Meta Gruetzmacher doing?" I asked one day.

"Don't you know about Meta? Why, she and Bernice Martin are in Hollywood, in the movies. Both of them are wonderful."

"And Jean? How about her?"

"Oh, she's director of physical education in Santiago, Chile. She's made quite a name for herself by the remarkable organization of her work."

"Good. Now tell me about Lois."

"She's married, and is living on a farm back home near Ripon. Perfectly happy, she says. Everyone was surprised when she gave up her music."

"Carl Klemp is still in athletics, I suppose?"

"Oh, yes," Lilas enthusiastically informed me. "He's training for the Olympic meet now, and right after that takes place—well, we're going to be married."
I assured her that that was lovely, and we went on to talk of other people, though, of course, they weren’t so interesting for her.

"Where is Ellen Krause now?" was my next question.

Lilas answered that Ellen had a very successful day nursery in Cleveland, Ohio. The business part of the concern was managed admirably by Adeline Millerr.

"Now tell me itbouit the boys of the class," I begged.

"You’ll soon discover what ‘Bookie’ is doing," the girls laughed. "Just wait till you go to the Pennsylvania station, in New York, on our way home! And if you’ll look carefully at the members of the crew on this ship, I’m sure you’ll discover several that you know. The captain, for instance, is ‘Happy’ Treanore—yes, he’s still ‘Happy’—and other members of the crew are Verl Kirby, Gilbert Van Kirk, and Marland Burt. Phillip Mishlove is head steward."

"Well, he certainly fills his place well," I said, remembering the wonderful meals we’d had.

"Elmer Schultz is running a ranch in Wyoming, where many of the restless city folks go to recuperate from their various maladies."

When we landed, of course, we all had to go through the investigation of the customs officer. The examination of my goods was carried on by Leslie Wessel.

During my first few hours in New York I noticed a great number of airplanes and trucks, all labeled “Coast-to-Coast Transportation Co.”

"That must be quite a concern," I remarked to Clarice, who had met me.

"It is, and Clarence Kuehn, class of ’27 of Ripon High School owns it," she replied.

"Good for him! Hasn’t our class done well, though? Wouldn’t it be wonderful if we could have a reunion sometime? But I suppose that is impossible, for we have scattered so. Just think! There are members of our class from Australia to Alaska, and from China to California."

"Who’s in Alaska?" Clarice asked.

"Victoria Adamski and Theodora Rudolph have a very exclusive resort up there. And who would ever have expected to see Lorraine Yerk a successful missionary in China?"

"Yes, and Irmgard Wink is a reformer in Germany!"

That evening, Clarice and I attended the opera, and who do you suppose had the leading rôle? Virginia Rusch! And she was wonderful, of course.

A few days later, when I was leaving for Washington, I did learn about ‘Bookie.’ He had the position of train dispatcher in the Pennsylvania station. On the train, I noticed a lady who seemed quite absorbed in some writing she was doing. When she looked up, I saw that it was Grace Anderson. We enjoyed a little chat, during which I learned that Grace was a very prominent poet of the present day. Lyman Nellis, she said, was doing wonders as a vaudeville actor. The two were planning to be married in the near future.

In Washington, I was met by Erna Retz-laff, who is now private secretary to the President’s wife. Erna says she enjoys her work very much, and would like to see any Ripon people who may come to Washington, officially or otherwise. She says that she expects to see Arthur Wegner as senator from Wisconsin, after the next election.

"My last stop before I reached Ripon was at Chicago. There, too, I found Ripon graduates making names for themselves. Arold Seidler, very much the same as he was in high school days, is a prosperous lawyer. He says that his wife, formerly Helen Mead, encourages him a great deal.

Melvin Clark is a wholesale candy merchant in the city and his candies are now more popular than either Whitman's or Johnston's.

The rest of our classmates I heard about when I visited Lois, who certainly did seem happy, on the fine farm which her husband owns, not far from Ripon. Carl Welk, she said, was killed while doing detective work, but he had his heart's desire—the finding of a notorious criminal. And by doing this, he freed Joseph Labisky, an innocent radio salesman, of all suspicion.

Alton Stellmacher is an exceptionally good photographer in Denver, and Marie Blewett is popular in the country school, which she teaches, in western Iowa. Arnold Schroeder is organist in a large Seattle church.

Well, my trip was certainly successful, in my opinion. After hearing what high places all my classmates had reached, I felt ready to return to my little home in Australia, and write any number of stories for the children back in the United States.

As an item of interest, I might add that Ripon now has the finest high school building in the United States, but the class of '27 is unexcelled when it comes to achievement.

The Tiger staff this year has worked hard to put out an annual which will be a little different than usual and which will at the same time add to its type. There are several new sections and it is hoped that the 1927 Tiger may be said to be the best of its size.

Under the able direction of Mr. Lueck, the Band as an organization has done wonders this year. Their ability, ingenuity, and enthusiasm have made our band what it is today and we may be very proud of it.

They were always on deck to play their best at any function, program, parade, play, concert and innumerable other showings. May the band be ever growing in size and accomplishments!

The Student Council was organized this year on October 20, 1926.

Very few people have been before the council this year. The reason is probably due to the fact that the council's authority is becoming established.

Many problems have been discussed by the council, always tending to better the school. Plans for a Pep club were made, but on account of the athletics being over with, the club will be organized next year. Other work that the council has done is to grant emblems to the glee club contestants. May its authority and purpose be respected and mean more to the school.
Girls' Glee Club

One of the most outstanding organizations this year has been the Girls' Glee Club. It is composed of seventy-five peppy members and is the biggest Girls' Glee Club ever organized in Ripon High School.

The club put on "Hiawatha," an Indian cantata, which was given for the public. Later, sixteen of the most interested girls were chosen to enter the "Little Ten Singing Contest," sponsored by the college. These girls, through willing efforts and hard practice took second place.

The sure success of the Girls' Glee Club is due to the effort of Miss Anderson.
Boys' Glee Club

The Boys' Glee Club is a newly-organized chorus, that is progressing splendidly under the supervision of Miss Anderson.

Due to the fact that it is a new organization, little has as yet been done to give the student body any proof of the club's labors; but the interest and spirit that, in general, is prominent everywhere within the club gives proof of a promising future; one in which the spirit therein will show the possibilities of a group of individuals working intently for the improvement of student spirit in Ripon High School and for the furthering of their own enjoyment and talent.

The boys' quartet, also under the direction of Miss Anderson, entered the Little Ten Musical Contest held at Ripon College May 7 and took second place.
Declamatory

Dysart, Koehler, Lietz, Leathart, Morgan,
Dettman, Turner, Wescott

Selections—
"Just David" .......................................................... Jean Dysart
"Monologue Between a Lady Shopper and a Salesman" ...... Adelaide Koehler
"The Very Anxious Mother" ....................................... Evelyn Lietz
"Mon Pierre" ............................................................ Grace Leathart
"Billy Brad and the Big Lie" ....................................... Olwen Morgan
"The Trial of Jonathan Goode" ..................................... Gertrude Dettman
"Even So," From Laddie ........................................... Clarice Turner
"The Council Retained" ............................................. Katherine Wescott

The number entering the local declamatory contest grows each year. After tryouts the eight girls listed above were entered for League competition. Clarice Turner received first, Grace Leathart close behind with second, and third place went to Katherine Wescott. In the league between Berlin, Waupun, and Ripon, Grace Leathart placed first. From there she went to the district meet where she fared well.

This good work and scholastic enterprise is well worth the support and attention of the High School and we can well be proud of such progress in Declamatory.
Although we cannot say that our debate season this year was an entire success as far as decisions are concerned, the benefit to those participating was great.

The subject for debate was, Resolved: That the Constitution of Wisconsin should be amended to provide for the Initiative and Referendum as proposed by the 1925 Legislature. The Negative lost to Berlin, followed by the Affirmative losing to Watertown in Little Ten competition. Later in the season the Negative lost to Waupun and the Affirmative did likewise to Hartford. Much effort and time was given, however, both by coach and debaters. All of the debaters were "new" at debating and next year with material already trained our success sounds promising.

THE WINNERS

With the above eight contestants in the local contest, R.H.S. may be proud of its oratorical endeavors. Meilahn Zahn took first, Wilbur Nehls, second. Douglas Hargrave, third, and Franklin Seavers, fourth. At the League contest due to ineligibility and sickness, our representatives were Wilbur Nehls and Franklin Seavers. Ripon is proud of the work of these oratorical representatives.

The Girls' Athletic Club was organized under the direction of Miss Engle in January, 1926. A constitution was adopted at that time stating that all Junior High School girls were eligible for membership. However, to be a member a girl must earn at least 100 points, at which time she is given a membership pin.

The Audubon club is a Junior High School organization. The purpose of this club is to create a greater interest in birds and further their protection. The club this year boasts a membership of 114. The boys are especially interested in the construction of bird houses.

A bird poster contest was conducted by Miss Kommers and prizes were awarded for the three best posters.

In addition to the regular meeting held each month the club presented five reels of bird films. It plans to present a new series of pictures each year, and hopes that all bird lovers will assist in making this work a success.

The club feels that most of its achievements of the past year are due to the excellent supervision of Miss Kommers.

After much practice and hard work on the part of the cast and committees the Senior class put on their play, "His Best Investment" on the first of June. Due to the efforts of the ticket committee the seat sale was fine and a big crowd attended. Under the able directorship of Miss Maloney the cast was able to do justice to the play and the crowd in great shape.
Popularity Contest

Many and varied were the questions hurled at the heads of members of the Tiger Staff as to the outcome of the contest, but to no avail. The results were kept a dark secret. The contest was exceedingly close.

CARL KLEMP
Captain-Senior

To Carl Klemp goes a great share of the credit achieved by the athletic teams representing Ripon High in the past year. Under the guidance of a true sportsman and athlete the three teams have met with great success and the athletic teams of next year are sure to miss the guiding hand of "Cutta."

ROBERT HIGBY
Manager

To Robert Higby belongs the tribute of manager of the athletic teams. He was an indefatiguable worker.
The Football Season

Coach Lunde and his gridiron men opened the season on Sept. 25 against Watertown. The game was played on Ingalls Field and although Ripon won the game it was not an easy one. It was a fight to the finish for both sides and at the final whistle Ripon led 10 to 0.

The next game of the season came October 8 when Oconto Falls came to Ripon instead of Mayville as was previously scheduled. Oconto Falls had a strong team, but regardless of the fact Ripon had an edge on them until the closing minutes of the game when they scored their second touchdown and consequently won the game by a 12 to 7 score.

Ripon journeyed to Beaver Dam the following week and here for the second time in the season they triumphed over another Little Ten school. The game was uninterest-esting and Ripon came out easy victors the score being 20 to 0.

Waupun came to Ripon determined to keep their slate clean. Through hard luck on Ripon's part by the loss of Bandt and Art Wegner, Waupun managed to squeeze out another victory for herself but only after a hard fight on her part. Waupun won 8 to 0, but regardless considering handicaps the Ripon squad put up a game fight and they were not beaten until after the final whistle had blown.

The last game of the season took place at Berlin where the game was played in about six inches of snow and mud. Ripon won, 7 to 0, but the game was not as close as the score shows. Ripon was at no time in danger of losing the game but because of weather conditions they could not run up a score.

MARLAND BURT
Senior

Burt playing his first year of high school football was one of the big guns in the line. Being in there and fighting hard all of the time was Burt’s idea of a “big time” and his loss will be keenly felt by the remaining members of the team.

JOHN FISCHER
Junior

This was John’s second year and he filled “Brother Bill’s shoes nobly. The team can be thankful that they are to have a man of his calibre around which to build their 1928 squad.

CLARENCE MEAD
Senior

Mead has been a mainstay in the line for the past two seasons. His work this year was recognized by local sport writers as some of the best performed on high school athletic fields.
JOE LABISKY
Senior

At the beginning of the season Joe started out holding down his berth in the line but at the end of the season Lunde shifted him to the backfield where he performed equally as well as he did on the line. This is also Joe’s first and last year of competition.

ARThUR KUSSMANN
Senior

This is also “Art’s” first year of high school competition. Kussmann was on the jump all of the time watching his side of the line and getting through the line after his man was one of his specialties. Kussmann’s loss will be one of Lunde’s problems next year.

LAWRENCE BANDT
Senior

This was Bandt’s first year on the line also and he played a good consistent game. He played in all the games this season and was recognized by his opponents as a dangerous man. His loss is sure to be felt by the ’28 squad.
Sophomore
Corky played a good game at the left wing position. This being his first year he lacked experience but after the first game he was as hard hitting an end as could be found in the conference.

ARTHUR WEGNER
Senior
Art held the right wing with great success until the Waupun game in which he received a fractured leg. He played hard and will be greatly missed by his teammates next year.

HENRY STERLINSKI
Junior
Henry was one of Klemp’s running mates in the backfield. Carrying the ball was his big job and he was responsible for many holes in the line of which other players took advantage. “Heinie” is to be with us for one more year.
JOHN DWYER
Junior

John played his position well all the time he was in the game and although he was not a regular this year, big things are expected from him in the future.

HAROLD WHITNEY
Junior

Whitney was the man called on by Lunde to fill Art Weger's position on the field. Although "green" at the game Whitney came through and played the rest of the season. Whitney has another year to play.

Jimmy was a shifty little man and although he played only a few minutes his letter was given to him because of the fact that he was out regularly and had the coaches needed him he was always in condition.
Coach Lunde again took charge of the football squad and though his untiring efforts the squad had a very successful season. Lunde worked in the best interests of his team throughout the season and the student body hopes for the return of Mr. Lunde next year.

Coach Olson took charge of the basketball and track squads. Both of these squads had very successful seasons, especially the track squad. He worked without tiring and this fact accounts for the success met by his teams the past season.
The Basketball Season

Coach Olson and his basketeers opened the season on Dec. 8 against a strong alumni squad. Due to the fact that the team was as yet unpolished they were forced to take a bad beating. This, however, was no disgrace as they were playing against a team of ex-college stars. The final score was 31 to 15 in favor of the grads.

The next encounter of the season came a week after when the squad met Brandon on the college gym floor. The weak spots on Ripon’s offense and defense were still highly visible. Regardless of this fact, Ripon won, the score being 10 to 5.

The first conference game of the season was played on Berlin’s floor on Jan. 7. With the dope against the gang they went to Berlin determined to win. After the team once got started they sure did go and at the end of the game they were on the long end of a 21 to 10 score. Capt. Carl Klemp was the star performer of the evening.

Ripon’s next encounter was with the strong Neenah aggregation which the year before had given the Ripon squad an unmerciful beating on their home floor. Ripon, determined to get revenge, triumphed over the flashy Neenah bunch to the tune of 22 to 17.

The following week Olson took his squad to Beaver Dam for the second conference game of the season. Beaver Dam was strong and after a fight to the finish they came out victors by one point, 20 to 19.

Ripon, still stinging from the defeat handed them the week before by Beaver Dam, invaded the Waupun camp on Jan. 28. Handicapped because they were in a small gym the locals just managed to nose out Waupun, the score being 17 to 16 at the final whistle.

Watertown was the next game scheduled on Feb. 4th. Watertown was the only conference team that had proven strong enough to beat the Ripon machine the year before. The game was played at Watertown and for the second time in succession the Watertown team triumphed over us. The score was 20 to 17.

The following week Ripon journeyed to Mayville and here they met defeat for the third time in the season. The game was close throughout but in the overtime period Mayville finally came out on the long end of the 16 to 18 score.

On Feb. 16, Berlin came to the college gym determined to get revenge. Both teams showed much improvement over the previous game and Ripon still seemed to have the edge on our oldest rival. The game was a fight to the final whistle, but Ripon led at the end 18 to 13.

Waupun came to our fair city on Feb. 23 with murder in their hearts. Waupun played better ball throughout the game than the local aggregation, but because of having hard luck on their many shots the game was won by Ripon. The score was 14 to 12.

The last conference game of the season came on March 4, when Horicon was our guest. The entire second team took part in this game and although being badly beaten Horicon was game until it was all over. The final score was 30 to 11 in favor of Ripon.
The Oshkosh Tournament

On March 12 Olson and his gang of warriors left for the Oshkosh tournament, where they first met Lomira High School. Lomira had a shifty little aggregation but the strength of the Ripon five was superb to that of Lomira and Ripon came out easy victors, the score being 28 to 17.

Ripon’s next encounter was with the much improved Waupun five. Waupun came to the tournament as one of the dark horses of the meet. Playing a better brand of ball than they had played all season they triumphed over the local squad by a 20 to 9 score. The following night Waupun beat Neenah High and thus won the tournament.

On Saturday morning Ripon met Brandon and although the game was not an easy one, Ripon was never in danger of losing it. The final score was Ripon 21, Brandon 15.

Ripon met Berlin for the third time this season at the tournament when the two teams clashed to decide the third place winner of the meet. Ripon was going at top speed and with Berlin suffering the loss of Captain Hess Ripon easily won from the Red and Green for the third time this year. The score was 13 to 7 in favor of the Orange squad.

FRANK RUDOLPH
Forward-Captain-elect
Junior

Fat didn’t become eligible until the second semester. He played throughout the remainder of the season and did his stuff in all the games. Big things are expected of Fat in the future.

MARLAND BURT--Guard
Senior

This was Burt’s first year as a regular. He played in all of the games and as in football he was rated as one of the most dependable players on the team.

HENRY STERLINSKI

Henry’s second year on the squad was a great success. He played in every game and together with Klemp scored most of the points for the team this year. He plays one more year.
WILLIAM SCHAEFER

This was Schaefer’s first year out also. Although not playing at a regular, Bill worked his way up and after mid-season he played the regular position. Schaefer has one more year to show his stuff.

VERL KIRBY—Forward
Senior
This was also Kirby’s second year with the squad and he played the regular position most of the year. His loss will be keenly felt by the remaining members of the squad.

CLARENCE MEAD—Guard
Senior
This was Mead’s first year and he played wonderful ball. Although not playing as much as the other men he proved a valuable asset to the team when needed.
WILBUR LAWRENCE
Forward
Junior
Skinny filled the reserve forward's position and when called upon did nobly. Skinny has one more year and he is sure to hold down a position on the squad this coming year.

LOE LABISKY
Center
Sen'or
This was Joe's second year on the squad. He proved an able assistant for Klemp when Klemp was called to take some other position. Joe has also played his last game for Ripon High.

ARTHUR KUSSMANN
Guard
Senior
Art's first year at the game was a success. Although not playing regularly Art was always in condition and the coaches needed him. Art graduates this spring.
Coach Olson and a squad of 13 men started the track season with a practice meet against our old rivals, Berlin High School. Although no points were kept in this meet, Olson was more than satisfied with the showing made by his cohorts and the outlook for chances of repeating our last year’s Little Ten championship was bright.

On May 7, Ripon College entertained the Little Ten Schools in a royal manner with a combination track and music meet. The day was ideal and the track in perfect condition.

Captain Carl Klemp was the big gun for Ripon, making a total of 15 points in this meet. These points were netted through firsts in the high hurdles, the shot put and the javelin. His position as high point man was undisputed in this meet. Next to Klemp came Burt with a total of 11 points. Burt broke a conference record when he walked off with the 220 yard dash, and besides this he pulled down two second positions, one in the shot put and another in the discus throw. Labisky came through with a tie for first in the pole vault, a second in the high hurdles and another second in the low hurdles event. Schaefer helped the cause along with a second in the 220 yard dash, a second in the broad jump and took fourth place in the century. Eckert broke another record, by running the 440 yard dash in 56 seconds. Fischer took a first in the high jump, taking the event at 5 feet 4 inches. Whitney scored another two points in the javelin throw, taking third place. Ripon scored a total of 54 points in this meet.
Of the six records broken in this meet, four were broken by Ripon men. Two records were broken by Klemp and one each by Burt and Eckert.

On May 18 Olson took his squad to Beaver Dam for the second Little Ten meet of the season. This meet was sponsored by Wayland Academy and the reception given the Little Ten schools was very commendable. With practically the same entries as in the previous meet Ripon again came out on the long end of the scoring.

As in the Ripon college meet “Cutta” was high point man. Although not showing up as well as in the first meet Klemp’s work was highly commendable under existing weather conditions. Klemp came through with his usual firsts in the high hurdles and the javelin, taking a second in the shot put. These events netted Klemp 13 points thus tying him with Dornfelt of Watertown for high point man. Each man received a cup. Burt was next high man from Ripon with a total of eight points to his credit. Burt again broke his record of the first meet of the season in the 220 yard dash by taking the event in 22.4 seconds. He also took a third in the discus and a fourth in the shot put. Eckert and Barbour placed first and fourth, respectively, in the 440 yard dash, Eckert running this race in 54.3 seconds to break another meet record. Labisky scored seven points for the squad taking a second in each the pole vault and high hurdle events and a fourth in the low hurdle event. For the balance of the points Schaefer took a second in the 220 yd. dash, Fischer a second in the high jump and Sterlinski a fourth in the broad jump.

As the meet ended Olson’s men had scored a total of 41 points and the nearest opponent, Watertown, had scored only 25 points. Although the squad did not show up as well as in the first meet their work was highly praised by the Wayland officials.

STATE TRACK MEET

Ripon High School’s celebrated track squad were taken to the state track meet at Madison after having proven themselves one of the best in the state. At the state meet the team managed to garner 15½ points. Klemp took a third in the shot put. Burt took a fourth in both the discus and the 220 yd. dash. Labisky captured a fourth in the high hurdles. Eckert was beaten out of a first in the 440 yard dash by possibly a stride and took a second. Schaefer was the big gun for the locals when he romped away with the 220 yard dash in 22.9 seconds. This time almost equaled the time in class A. Ripon took third place in this meet, and with the two times we had already one Little Ten meets we all consider the track season a huge success.
Humor

PLAY A SAXOPHONE AND BE PRESIDENT.
ONTRARY to the usual idea, this humor department really is funny if you'll look for the humor—it's between the lines. It's really so funny that it'll make you scream; if you won't scream because it's humorous, scream because it takes so long to find the joke. But the joke is on you for there really isn't any joke—it's a riddle, the question being "Where in the 1927 Tiger can humor be found?" Now don't you dare look below this line until you've tried at least for five minutes to solve this weighty problem. Now we'll answer it—get out the old smelling salts—"In the pictures, cuz all the kids have such funny faces." So here goes!

What's in a Name?

It was on a KUEHN, windy SOMMERS day that LUBINSKI Horehound SCHULZ RUDOLPH across Lake Mudhole. He had taken with him from the KITCHEN some good MEAD, HAMBERGER, a loaf of bread, and seven sardines. With him was his lion TREANIRE, Adolph Schultzzenheimer, who wore a GRIESE PATCH over one eye.

Now Adolph was a good Dutchman, and he said, "Herr Schulz, I think we OTTO not FARGO for it looks like REAGEN, and the water is very MIELKA. Pray do not be RAASCH."

Even then Lubinski Horehound Schulz would not listen, so Adolph Schultzzenheimer said, "Before we go, O'NEAL down on the WHITE BEACH and ask that our SOULES be saved."

Schulz laughed a dirty laugh. "YERK crazy, MANN," he said JESS crazy." And he pulled poor Adolph Schultzzenheimer over the GRASSEE beach without a WITT of feeling.

They went far, far out from shore, so far, that it grieves me to say, they could not even see bottom—think of that! Suddenly the wind BLEWETT and Blewett, the sky grew KOHL BROWN; Adolph tried to KLEMP himself to the boat; even then Herr Schulz SHIELDS himself from the storm, but it was useless. Muttering to himself he said, ADAMSKI looks bad," and then shouting orders, "TURNER around or SEIDLER." They worked, but to no avail. In one final, valiant effort, when everything else seemed useless, they leaped from the boat into the angry waters. Swimming was impossible, so down, down they went. With a great BUMP they hit something. "USTRUCK bottom," said Adolph helpfully, his mouth full of seaweed.

And for the first time in his life, old Schulz was sorry. With tears in his already waterlogged eyes, he sniffled, "Now we'll have to let old Neptune be our BARBOUR forever."
The End

Best wishes—Good Luck.

Don't forget going to the library that one day.
